High Wind to Idaho is set at the end of the 19th century in Japan and America. It tells the story of a Japanese boy, Yoshi, and an American boy, Billy, who are both mad about balloons and airships. How and where they meet, and their thrilling journeys, separately and together, is the stuff of high adventure.

High Wind to Idaho by Rod Barclay - Goodreads

High Wind to Idaho is a middle-grade historical airship adventure set during the America's first UFO scare of 1896, and fortells the later Japanese balloon bombs of W.W.II. Yoshi, a young Japanese boy steals a ride on a secret balloon and ends up in the USA, as the nation worries about reported Martian landings and mysterious airship sightings.
