factor governing student learning is Classroom Management. It is practices, teacher practices, that govern student learning. What the teacher does in the classroom to structure and organize a learning environment is the most important factor that will increase student achievement.

There Is Only One Way To Improve Student Achievement Harry

I chose to call my store "Maximum Impact" because it is my desire that my products help other to make the maximum impact on their students. However, I also named it "Maximum Impact" because I feel it is my calling to make the maximum impact on each of my students every day (academically, socially, and spiritually).
