This question is one I hear so many times. People write to me and say "I have done the research, and apparently narcissists don't change. But can a narcissist heal? How can he / she change?" This was a question, once upon a time I agonised over myself. With the first narcissistic abuse experience I was so deluded into believing I still loved him, and we were truly meant to be together.

Over many years the typical cancer personality has trained their body to remain rigid and tense in response to life stressors. And when the body is not relaxed the mind will not relax sufficiently enough to enter the deep-sleep-cycle to produce melatonin, which is the primary hormone responsible for inhibiting cancer cell growth.
