Varney the Vampire; or, The Feast of Blood by James

Varney the Vampire is a Victorian-era gothic serial that was first published from 1845-1847 in what was known as the "penny dreadful" format. Authorship of the original work is still a matter of some debate; though most acknowledge James Malcolm Rymer or Thomas Peckett Prest (or possibly both) as the actual author(s).

Varney the Vampire; or, The Feast of Blood: James Malcolm

Varney the Vampire is over 220 chapters and is a piece of history. Before tv and melodramas apparently people entertained themselves with "penny dreadfuls" which were weekly published pamphlets of a story.
